Report on ALUMNI MEET

(Batches passed out from 2002 to 2011)

Date : 29.06.2025

Venue: C-Block Seminar Hall

The Alumni Meet for the batches passed out from 2002 to 2011 was successfully organized on 29th June 2025 at C-Block seminar Hall, with the goal of reconnecting alumni, celebrating shared memories, and strengthening the bond between past students and the institution. The event witnessed an enthusiastic turnout of over 200 alumni along with their families. Their vibrant presence made the event joyful and meaningful.

Event Highlights:

The program began with a warm welcome address by Dr. A. Naveen Sait, Principal, who expressed his delight in hosting the alumni and highlighted the tremendous growth of the institution over the past two decades, from academic achievements to infrastructural developments.

Dr. M.Y. Abdul Jallel, Vice Chairman, expressed his heartfelt gratitude to the alumni and their families for taking the time to attend and for maintaining their bond with the institution.

Er. A. Mohamed Yunus, Chairman, took a nostalgic journey through the institution's history, recalling memories from the first batch (1998–2002) to the present. He emphasized the importance of alumni meets and encouraged alumni to participate regularly, ideally once every year, to strengthen ties and contribute to the institution's growth.

During the Alumni Talk session, several alumni shared their experiences and heartfelt happiness at being part of the event. Many of them also expressed their willingness to support current MIETians in placement training and preparation for government job opportunities. Their encouragement and offers of mentorship were highly appreciated.

Gifts and mementos were distributed to all alumni at the beginning of the function. Fun events and informal activities then brought joy and relaxation for alumni and their families, creating a friendly and festive atmosphere. Group photo sessions captured the highlights of the day. The function concluded with lunch.

The event concluded with a heartfelt Vote of thanks delivered by Mr. E. Santhosh Kumar, Assistant Professor, who expressed gratitude to the management, dignitaries, alumni, organizing team, faculty, and volunteers for their support and participation in making the Alumni Meet a grand success.
